December Features

*School Choir Performance: A December tradition continues. Enjoy choral performances in the newly restored Reading Rooms.

*Art and Literary Zine- On February 14, 2019, Wright Memorial Public Library will be 80 years old! To celebrate, we're collecting poetry, short stories, fast fiction, essays, and art to be compiled in an online and printed publication.

*Teen Exam Break- Junior high and high school students are invited to the Library for an exam break to enjoy comfort food, therapy dogs, social time, and other relaxing activities.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTIONS

YOUTH

BABY STORYTIME (0-18 mo.)

Mother Goose is on the loose at the Library! At this storytime we will romp through stories, fingerplays, and rhymes to get your baby giggling and learning. Siblings welcome.

BOOKS & BLOCKS (18-36 mo.)

This non-traditional storytime is just right for little ones with the wiggles! Miss Karen leads an energetic playtime before a brief circle time with books, fingerplays, and rhymes. Siblings welcome.

PAWS TO READ (Elementary)

Come read with therapy dogs in the cozy library atmosphere! Walk-ins welcome; however, a minimum of 2 registered attendees are required for the program to occur.

TERRIFIC TALES (3-5 yrs.)

We'll share stories, rhymes, songs and crafts to build our social and school-readiness skills at this traditionally styled storytime! Siblings welcome.

TWEENS

GAME ON TWEENS (grades 4-6)

Video games, board games, and crafting--available at every meeting of Game On!

SERIES SATURDAY (grades 3-6)

A book club for grades 3-6 to discuss their favorite series. Each month features a particular series and a craft or game.

TEENS (Grades 7-12)

GAME ON TEENS

Video games, board games, and crafting--available at every meeting of Game On!

TEEN ADVISORY BOARD

The library Teen Advisory Board meets monthly to plan, promote, and participate in projects that serve the library and the community. Please pick up an application at the library.

TEEN CAFÉ

Teen Café is a laid-back evening of games, crafts, chatting and snacks, all with a video playing in the background. Join in the selected activities or bring your own to share.

TEEN WRITING CLUB

Join other teens who are interested in writing fiction and poetry to discuss writing, do some writing, and constructively and kindly critique each other's work.

FAMILY

LET'S GO LEGO

An open-ended prompt loosely guides young builders at this free play program featuring Legos, Duplos, coloring pages, and books. Parents can join in too!

ADULT

BOOK CLUB

Join in the discussion each month on the second Tuesday at 7 p.m. The Book Club meets in the library meeting room. Reservations are not required.

LET'S TALK

A program designed to present a complex topic and create an opportunity for local citizens to meet and grapple with issues in a neutral, respectful setting.

NEXT CHAPTER BOOK CLUB

Lively discussions can be expected at this friendly book club, where every voice is heard! Promoting literacy, social connections, and inclusion for adults with developmental disabilities.

TECH TUTORING

A one-on-one training session with a Wright Library research librarian for help with devices, software programs, apps, and building tech skills.

WRIGHT LIBRARY POETS

Wright Library Poets is a library sponsored open writing group for adults. We meet monthly in the library meeting room to share our work and hone our craft.

WRITERS CAFE

Join us to improve your writing, meet new friends. Beginners welcome. Hang out with other writers in a casual environment, ask questions, and share your successes and frustrations.
